REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION.

The Republican Delegates from the counties of Chautauqua and Western New York, at the Congressional District Convention, held at the Hotel of 2 P. S. Smith, Wells, the 4th of July, for the purpose of nominating a candidate to represent the Tenth Congressional District, in the summer of 1874, elected the Honorable Samuel F. Wells, of Buffalo, a member of the Senate of the State, and one of the proceedings of the Congress of the United States, as a member of the United States House of Representatives.

Resolved, That A. R. Cook, of Buffalo, be nominated and declared to be the Republican congressional candidate for the Tenth Congressional District in the State of New York.

Signed, etc.

To the Republican Delegates at the Congressional District Convention, held at the Hotel of 2 P. S. Smith, Wells, the 4th of July, for the purpose of nominating a candidate to represent the Tenth Congressional District, in the summer of 1874, elected the Honorable Samuel F. Wells, of Buffalo, a member of the Senate of the State, and one of the proceedings of the Congress of the United States, as a member of the United States House of Representatives.

Resolved, That A. R. Cook, of Buffalo, be nominated and declared to be the Republican congressional candidate for the Tenth Congressional District in the State of New York.

Signed, etc.

To the Republican Delegates at the Congressional District Convention, held at the Hotel of 2 P. S. Smith, Wells, the 4th of July, for the purpose of nominating a candidate to represent the Tenth Congressional District, in the summer of 1874, elected the Honorable Samuel F. Wells, of Buffalo, a member of the Senate of the State, and one of the proceedings of the Congress of the United States, as a member of the United States House of Representatives.

Resolved, That A. R. Cook, of Buffalo, be nominated and declared to be the Republican congressional candidate for the Tenth Congressional District in the State of New York.

Signed, etc.

To the Republican Delegates at the Congressional District Convention, held at the Hotel of 2 P. S. Smith, Wells, the 4th of July, for the purpose of nominating a candidate to represent the Tenth Congressional District, in the summer of 1874, elected the Honorable Samuel F. Wells, of Buffalo, a member of the Senate of the State, and one of the proceedings of the Congress of the United States, as a member of the United States House of Representatives.

Resolved, That A. R. Cook, of Buffalo, be nominated and declared to be the Republican congressional candidate for the Tenth Congressional District in the State of New York.

Signed, etc.

To the Republican Delegates at the Congressional District Convention, held at the Hotel of 2 P. S. Smith, Wells, the 4th of July, for the purpose of nominating a candidate to represent the Tenth Congressional District, in the summer of 1874, elected the Honorable Samuel F. Wells, of Buffalo, a member of the Senate of the State, and one of the proceedings of the Congress of the United States, as a member of the United States House of Representatives.

Resolved, That A. R. Cook, of Buffalo, be nominated and declared to be the Republican congressional candidate for the Tenth Congressional District in the State of New York.

Signed, etc.

To the Republican Delegates at the Congressional District Convention, held at the Hotel of 2 P. S. Smith, Wells, the 4th of July, for the purpose of nominating a candidate to represent the Tenth Congressional District, in the summer of 1874, elected the Honorable Samuel F. Wells, of Buffalo, a member of the Senate of the State, and one of the proceedings of the Congress of the United States, as a member of the United States House of Representatives.

Resolved, That A. R. Cook, of Buffalo, be nominated and declared to be the Republican congressional candidate for the Tenth Congressional District in the State of New York.

Signed, etc.